P R E F A C E

The complete record of the ancestry of the Ullom Family is not known, but we believe the first immigrant came from the Rhine Valley in Germany. The first Ullom of whom we have any record was Jacob Woolam who died in 1778 and whose will was filed for probate in the Berkeley County Court House at Martinsburg, Virginia, now West Virginia, on November 17, 1778. Also in the Court House is an account of the sale of Jacob's personal estate, held after his death, which shows he had much wealth. Many have been searching records to learn more about Jacob, but meet with little success.

I wish to express my appreciation for the various records that so many of the Ullom lineage have sent me concerning their immediate families. Mrs. Charles Edward Ullom (Verna Murray), of Croton, Ohio, was especially helpful in furnishing data of numerous families descended from Grandfather Peter Ullom, of Aleppo, Pa. Dr. Josephus T. Ullom, of Philadelphia, Pa., was generous in typing for me the history of his Grandfather Isaac Ullom (oldest brother of Grandfather Peter Ullom, of Aleppo, Pa.) and his descendants, and also in writing much other data on the Ulloms.

My gratitude is also due Mr. Donn Piatt Ullom, of Pittsburgh, Pa., for a copy of Jacob Woolam's will, and also for his help along with that of Mr. John B. Rush, of Waynesburg, Pa., and Mr. Walter W. Ullom, of Washington, Pa., on the records of the family of Jesse Bowen Ullom (youngest brother of Grandfather Peter Ullom, of Aleppo, Pa.). My brother, Mr. Roscoe C. Mitchell, assisted in acquiring information on a number of Ullom families. Mr. Jesse F. Ullom, pharmacist, (now deceased) was very kind to lend me Ullom history especially written for him by Mr. Howard L. Leckey, historian, of Waynesburg, Pa.

Much information was acquired from Bibles, obituaries, Court House records, Histories of Greene County, Funeral Homes, cemeteries, Superintendents of cemeteries, Historical Societies, "Biographical Record of Wood County Ohio", and also " Biographical Record of City of Toledo, Wood and Lucas Counties, Ohio".

I greatly desire that research into the ancestry of the Ulloms be continued by interested descendants.

This brief history of the Ullom Family was completed by Mrs. Florence Mitchell Weimer, Waynesburg, Pa., November 15, 1963.

JACOB and MAGDALENE WOOLAM

The first Ullom ancestor of whom we have any record was Jacob Woolam who died in 1778 in Berkeley County, Virginia (now W. Va.). Howard L. Leckey, historian, who resided in Waynesburg, Pa., while browsing through some old records in the Berkeley County, W. Va., Court House at Martinsburg, noticed a name that sounded familiar. The name was spelled "Woolam" and the record was the will of Jacob Woolam who made the document in Berkeley County, Va., on April 13, 1778, which was filed for probate in Martinsburg on November 17, 1778. In the will Jacob named his wife Magdalene and their eleven children. (Will Book I, pp. 150 )

(The list of names are in the same order as in Jacob's will.)

Jacob Woolam was a weaver and also a farmer and was quite prosperous. He left a large personal estate, for each item is listed with sale price and to whom the sale was made. It shows the sons making purchases, as well as the widow Magdalene. Among the 54 items Magdalene bought were a large Bible and a stack of rye. Also sold to other persons were a Dough Trough, a Loom, and 35 bushels of wheat. The sale brought a considerable sum of money.

No record has been found of Jacob Woolam's having emigrated from the Rhine Valley in Germany, or the date and place of his entrance into the United States, nor are there any records of Jacob's father. The "Historical and Biographical Record of Wood County, Ohio", published in 1897, makes this statement, "The progenitor of the Wollam family was born in Karlsruhe, Baden, Germany, in 1684, came to Philadelphia in 1700, and later secured a lease on a tract of land in Berkeley County, Virginia. A son Jacob born there in 1715, had a son Baltzer born there in 1745, who had a son Henry born in 1777 on the same land on which the lease expired in 1802". Another book, "Portrait and Biographical Record of the City of Toledo and Lucas and Wood Counties, Ohio", published in 1895, stated that Jacob Woolam, who was born in Virginia in 1715, leased a tract of land for 99 years in Berkeley County, Virginia. It also stated that the family history prior to the time of Jacob's birth was handed down from father to son by vocal expression.

Mrs. Christine Bergen, a genealogist of Martinsburg, W.Va., was employed by Dr. Josephus T. Ullom, 160 Carpenter Lane, Philadelphia 19, Pa., to discover the name of Jacob Wollam's father, who was supposed to have leased land in Berkeley County and to have been the first Ullom immigrant. After a careful examination of records in Berkeley and Frederick counties, Mrs. Bergen reported that there is not one record to substantiate the story of the Wood County, Ohio, History. She stated there is no reference to any of them leasing or owning land in Berkeley County except Balser, the oldest son of Jacob Woolam, who leased 320 acres from Lord Fairfax on May 3, 1781, two and a half years after the death of his father. Balser bought 296 acres from Mathias Swim on March 10, 1785, and made two purchases, one for 184 acres and the other for 103 acres from John Bailey, Jr., on April 15, 1794. Balser sold these holdings in several separate deeds, the last one dated Sept. 20, 1806. Balser, wife and children left Berkeley County and settled in Columbiana County, Ohio. Other sons of Jacob have emigrated to the West, as the name Woolam has disappeared from Berkeley County, W. Virginia.

Peter and Shem, sons of Jacob Woolam, and brothers of Balser, came to the Ten Mile Country in the section that is now Greene County, Pa., and were living there when the 1790 Census was taken. Peter had six or seven children at that time and Shem had one boy and two girls. Peter seems to have been the only son of Jacob to change the family name to ULLOM, and his descendants have used that name. On October 3, 1794, Peter Ullom purchased 99 acres in Morgan Township from Patrick Martin and wife Mary. In 1814 Peter and his wife Margaret sold these 99 acres to Daniel Clark. (In Washington Co. Deed Book I, pages 88-89).

Shem Woolam came with Peter to the Ten Mile Country and was living there when the 1790 Census was taken. On October 3, 1794 Shem and Peter bought adjoining farms. Shem was born in 1760 and died in 1834. His wife's name was Hannah. He belonged to Capt. William Crawford's Company in 1793. This company fought the Indians as far west as the Muskingum River in Ohio. Shem, while working on his farm was attacked by marauding Indians from Ohio, but was able to escape to his cabin, helped by his wife who could shoot a rifle, and he did not lose his scalp or his life. This story was told by Dr. J. T. Ullom, of Philadelphia, Pa., as he remembers hearing it as a child. Shem and family must have emigrated to Ohio or farther west, as I can find no trace of him or his family.

Magdalene Woolam Morsey, daughter of Jacob Woolam, lived in Maryland. In the records of the German Reformed Church in Hagerstown, Md., is the statement that Jacob appeared early in 1770 at the christening of his grandson Peter, son of his daughter, Magdalene Morsey. The minister of the church added to the record that the witness Jacob Ulm was not a member of the congregation.

This Ullom Family is not of Dutch extraction, for the names Ulm, Woolam, Wollam, or Ullom do not appear in the language of Holland. Because this family comes from the Rhine Valley in Germany, one naturally comes to the conclusion that we are of German descent. But the Ohio Wollams, according to the Wood County, Ohio, History, trace their ancestry back to the French Huguenots, (French Protestants), who were driven from their native land by horrible persecution and sought homes in Germany. Here they were also oppressed, and embarked for America in order to enjoy greater religious liberty. The Woolams, Wollams and Ulloms are all the same family, as they are descendants of the sons of Jacob Woolam.

The residents of the Rhine Valley in the western part of Germany were hard-working, thrifty people. They were tired of the constant war, so in 1683 when William Penn offered the colony of Pennsylvania for all people, these Germans of the Rhine Valley were ready for an exodus. Nearly all of those who left Germany sailed from Rotterdam, Holland, to Philadelphia. Some of them came as indentured servants and were sold at the wharf for enough money to pay their passage. While some came in 1683 and later, the greatest exodus to Pennsylvania was between 1730 and 1760. These Germans were called the "Pennsylvania Dutch".

PETER and MARGARET ULLOM

Peter Ullom was born February 9, 1749 in Berkeley County, West Virginia, (then Virginia), the county seat being Martinsburg. In the Peter Ullom family Bible, now owned by Dr. Josephus T. Ullom, of Philadelphia, his wife's name was listed as Margaret with no surname given. Peter and Margaret were married May 10, 1770.

Peter and his family were living in the Ten Mile Country when the 1790 Census (first in the United States) was taken. We have no other record of their arrival in the above section. On March 28, 1781, Washington County was organized, and on February 9, 1796, Greene County was formed from part of Washington County, and Peter and his family then were residents of Greene County. From March 28, 1781 to February 9, 1796, all business transactions were recorded in the Court House in Washington, Pa., and after that in the Greene County Court House in Waynesburg, Pa.

Peter Ullom was a son of Jacob and Magdalene Woolam. The last name was spelled Woolham, Whoolam, Woollam, Wollam or Woolam. It eventually became ULLOM by the spelling adopted in the family of Peter and Margaret Ullom.

On September 19, 1793, Peter Ullom (spelled then Woolam) bought 98 acres of land from Capt. James Hook's purchase of "Hooks Delight". (Washington Co. Deed Book I page 765 ) Here he resided until his death. This land was in Franklin Township. In 1823 he sold 3 acres of this farm to David Wallace. When Peter's land was sold, his name was Peter Ullom.

The date of Peter's death according to his family Bible was August 1, 1825, but the will of Peter Ullom, Senior, Deceased, was probated August 24, 1824. The widow, Margaret Ullom, was to have one third of all his personal estate and that to be of her own choice. The tract of land on which he lived was to go to Peter, Jr., and Joseph. They were to pay to the widow one-third of the rents of this tract of land yearly. She was to have the use of the house wherein she then lived, a garden, and the liberty of keeping a cow free of expense. The land was to be valued at the death of the widow and one-third of the value was to be paid to Jacob after deducting from the value three bequests - $50 to Elijah, $50 to Stephen, and $20 to George. Joseph Ullom and Sylvanus Smith were to be the Executors of the Will. His will was made January 29, 1818. (Greene County Will Book I, page 257 )

Peter must have died shortly before his will was probated August 24, 1824. (He could have died August 1, 1824.)

When his will was made January 29, 1816, four of the children, William, Samuel, Elizabeth and Nancy, were not named in the will, so they must have been deceased.

10. Stephen Ullom	Mar. 4, 1796	Dec. 31, 1816

In Volume VI of the Howard L. Leckey History is the statement that Peter Ullom, Jr., seems to have died about the same time as his father, leaving five (5) minor children, Harrison, Elisha, Shem, Rachel and Nancy.

Peter Ullom, Jr., died intestate and likely after his father, because Mary Ullom, his widow, in her petition at the November term of Court in 1824 at Waynesburg, Pa., stated that her husband had lately died and left three children under 14 years of age - Nancy, Elisha and Harrison - and asked that a guardian be appointed. The Court named Thomas Hogue and George Ullom as guardians. (Orphans Court Docket I, pp 214, and Orphans Court Docket II, pp 36.)

Also in Volume VI, Mr. Leckey reported the indications are that Margaret Ullom, widow of Peter Ullom, Sr., died shortly after her husband, and on May 18, 1829 their sons sold the land to Isaac Ullom, oldest son of George Ullom. Isaac Ullom bought the Peter Ullom, Sr., family Bible for four dollars.

The time from the date of Peter's death until the sale of his land on May 18, 1829 was at least four years and nine months. In the Court House is the record that Shem Ullom and his wife Nancy made a deed for one fifth (1/5) of a certain part of the Peter Ullom, Sr., land to Isaac Ullom, which deed was recorded May 18, 1829, but the sale was made March 7, 1829. Shem must have been the oldest son of Peter Ullom, Jr., and Nancy surely was Nancy Davis Ullom. (Deed Book 6, page 458., Shem and Nancy Davis Ullom are the great-grandparents of John J. Ullom of Chillicothe, Ohio.

GEORGE and MARGARET BOWEN ULLOM

George Ullom was the fourth child of Peter and Margaret Ullom and was born December 1, 1779, the date given in the Peter Ullom Bible. Howard Leckey, historian, and resident of Waynesburg, Pa., stated that George was born October 31, 1779, presumably in Berkeley County, West Virginia, (then Virginia). Peter and family were here in 1790 when the first census was taken, and there is no other data as to the time of their arrival, so that George must have been brought by his parents to Greene County when a young boy.

George Ullom and George Graham built the first Court House in Waynesburg, Pa., in 1797 at the corner of Greene Street and Whisky Alley. George must have had some knowledge of the carpenter trade. This information comes from "Graham - Grimes Genealogy" by Dr. Frances Graham Sitherwood, 1926.

On August 8, 1801 George Ullom married Margaret Bowen who was born April 18, 1779 and died February 19, 1853. George bought of John Smith in December 1814 eighty-one (81) acres of land in Morgan Township. In June 1828 George bought of Daniel Thompson 100 acres of land in Franklin Township for $300., and this became his home farm. George came into possession of his father's farm of 95 acres of land in Franklin Township. He now owned 276 acres of land.

He died in Franklin Township September 21, 1830 at age 50. Both he and his wife are buried in the Morrisville Cemetery east of Waynesburg. George died intestate, so in September 1831 his son Peter (Later of Aleppo Township) petitioned the Greene Co. Court for a partition of the 276 acres. The estate was then divided and sold to settle the estate. land

Peter Ullom bought 81 3/4 acres, and D. T. Ullom bought the other two farms.

George and Margaret Bowen Ullom had 13 children, but Peter Ullom named 12 children for the Greene County Court record in September 1831, and stated the first six were over 21 years of age and the last six were under 21 years old. (Orphans Court Docket Book I, page 344.) Sarah was not named and must have died before September 1831.

The children of Daniel and Mary Ann Ullom Edgar were Margaret age 6, George age 4, Jesse age 2, and Martha Ann age 7 months, according to the 1850 Greene Co., Census, and Daniel Edgar was 64 years of age and Mary Ann was 32.

Isaac was a stock grower. Peter, D. Thompson, and Daniel or Dan were farmers, also Jacob. Jesse was a carpenter.

ISAAC and MARGARET BAYARD ULLOM

Isaac Ullom was the oldest son of George and Margaret Bowen Ullom and was born August 27, 1802, in Greene County, Penna. Isaac settled his father's estate in the autumn of 1831 and, with his wife and three children, went to Wheeling to get transportation down the Ohio River. They arrived in Monroe County, Ohio, just above Marietta on the river and stayed there for awhile, and then moved on to Athens County and settled in a village called McArthur, which was later in Vinton County, as it was formed out of part of Athens Co.

Isaac married Margaret Bayard in Greene County and they had hard luck with their family of nine children. Elizabeth died before they left Greene County, and Ezra, Bowen and Witten died in one week in 1839, and it is thought of a contagious disease. Perry died in 1843. Ezra and Perry were good sized boys, but Elizabeth, Bowen and Witten were very young children. Four children, Samuel, George, Andrew and Clorinda, survived to maturity. Isaac was a drover.

In 1845, Isaac Ullom went to Burlington, Iowa, on business. He contracted either typhoid fever or malaria, and died miserably in a hotel. He was buried there, as the family was not financially able to send anyone out there to claim the body.

Margaret Bayard Ullom left Samuel in Ohio, and brought her three young children to Greene County. George was placed with a relative, Andrew stayed with Daniel Thompson Ullom, and Mrs. Ullom took the baby, Clorinda, with her to her brother, Perry Bayard. They then lived in log cabins in Penna. and were poor, but Margaret B. Ullom was a hard worker and could spin and weave and was also an excellent cook, and for those reasons she was a welcome guest. She later, with her three children, returned to McArthur, Ohio, and was married to John Morrison. Samuel, the second son of Isaac and Margaret, was a carpenter by trade and an excellent craftsman. In 1856, Andrew, at age 14, was apprenticed to his brother, Samuel, who was 31, and learned the carpenter trade.

Samuel B. Ullom lived in Mc Arthur in Vinton County 25 miles west of Athens, Ohio. He had a large family of children. There were probably 7 or 8 girls and 4 or 5 boys. Samuel used to come to Athens to work with Andrew in building houses, as both were skilled carpenters. After Samuel's death in 1888, his son Frank, also a carpenter, came to Athens to work with his Uncle Andrew. Samuel, George and Andrew were all very much alike physically, being rather short, 5 ft. 8 in., and weighing about 170 pounds.

George W. Ullom lived in Athens, Ohio, and was in business with James W. Bayard, who was a younger brother of Margaret Bayard Ullom, and a very prosperous man. They had a large hardware store together with a roofing department, and later, when the town had waterworks, they added a plumbing department. George married Nancy Swain and they had two children, William who died young and Nancy, who died in 1895 of tuberculosis. Nancy Swain Ullom died before 1877.

Clorinda Ullom, the youngest of Isaac's family, married Patrick Murdock and had 8 children; namely, John, Andrew Lloyd, George, Frank, Margaret, Mary, Sara and Amy. Clorinda and Patrick lived in Mc Arthur. This family came often to Athens and the girls kept house for their uncle, George W. Ullom. Patrick and Clorinda Ullom Murdock and their children lived in Mc Arthur, Ohio.

Andrew Ullom lived with his older brother Samuel Ullom in Mc Arthur from 1856 to 1861 when he was learning the carpenter's trade, but on August 1, 1861 he enlisted in the O. V. I. and was in the Army for three years until mustered out November 1864. He was in two great battles in the Civil war, Stone's River and Chickamauga, and in numerous smaller engagements. Afterwards Andrew worked at his trade in Springfield, Ohio, and Columbus. He met Ellenor Jane Tucker when she was teaching in Mc Arthur and they were married December 31, 1874. She was a daughter of Josephus Tucker who was born in Romney, W. Va., in 1814 and went to Coolville, Athens County, Ohio, about 1837. In 1840 he married Mary Elliott, and in 1850 he bought a farm and moved to it being a farmer and blacksmith.

In 1859 he sold his farm and moved to Athens where he bought a home and five acres of pasturefield, and retired at the age of 45. Andrew and Ellenor Jane Ullom went to live with Josephus Tucker and his wife, and were there until Andrew, with the help of Samuel Ullom, built a house in 1879 next door to the Tucker home in Athens. Mary Elliott Tucker died of cancer in August 1877 and Josephus Tucker died in 1882. Andrew Ullom never married again after his wife died in 1894.

1. Mary Ullom, oldest daughter of Andrew and Ellenor Jane Tucker, went to college and mothered the other children after her mother's death in 1894. Mary graduated from college in 1896 and was married in 1900 to a classmate in college, David H. Thomas. He had worked his way through college, and, after teaching one year, went to Michigan Law School and settled in Marietta where he was very successful. He eventually became the County Judge, holding the Judgeship for over twenty years. He was a very fine man, kindly, moral, did not drink or smoke, had a keen sense of humor, never overcharged a client, and was very intelligent.

They had four children. Andrew Ullom Thomas, the oldest, is an attorney in Dayton, Ohio. John Bayard Thomas, the second son, graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy, and was killed in an automobile accident several years after graduation. Their daughter Virginia died of osteomyelites, a severe infection of the bone marrow. Josephus Tucker Thomas is an attorney in Marietta, Ohio. David H. Thomas died in Marietta.

Mary Ullom Thomas still lives in Marietta, and she is fairly well and does not have a nurse or maid.

2. Dr. Josephus T. Ullom was born October 4, 1877 in Athens, Ohio, and graduated from High School in 1894 and from Ohio University at Athens in 1898 with an A.B. degree. He entered the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1898 and graduated in 1901. He has practiced medicine in Chestnut Hill and Germantown, Philadelphia, ever since.

PETER and MATILDA KINNEY ULLOM

Peter Ullom, son of George and Margaret Bowen Ullom, was born April 10, 1808 and died December 10, 1893, aged 85 years and 8 months. Peter was 16 when his grandfather Peter Ullom died in 1824 and 22 when his father died in 1830. His great-grandfather Jacob Wollam, of Berkeley Co., W. Va., died in 1778.

Peter married Matilda Kinney who was born May 2, 1805 and died July 26, 1866. Peter was married and had one son, Madison Ullom, when he petitioned the Greene Co. Court in September 1831 to partition his father's 276 acres of land so it could be sold, as his father left no Will.

Matilda is buried in the Windy Gap Cemetery. Peter gave land and money for the erection of the Centennial Church in 1876 in Aleppo Township near his home. He must have owned 400 acres of land. He is buried in the Centennial Cemetery.

Peter's second wife was Mrs. Margaret Snyder, a widow with several children. After her death, Peter married Mrs. Sarah Johnson, a widow, who had no children. She was born in England on January 10, 1830. Her first husband was Benjamin Fellows, of England. Following his death, she came to this country and married David Johnson near White Cottage. After his death she married Peter Ullom of Aleppo Township, whose home was at the foot of Centennial Hill. Peter died in 1893. In 1895 Mrs. Sarah Ullom married Rev. James A. Murray. She died February 19, 1903, aged 73 years, and was buried beside a sister in Mt. Olive Cemetery near Proctor, W. Va.

MADISON ULLOM and FAMILY

Madison Ullom, oldest son of Peter and Matilda Kinney Ullom, was a prominent farmer of Aleppo Township. He owned 250 acres of land in the vicinity of the Windy Gap Church. He was born March 20, 1831 and died December 3, 1879, aged 48 years. He is buried in the Windy Gap Cemetery. His first wife was Sarah Gray whom he married June 29, 1852. She was born May 4, 1833 and died January 3, 1867, aged 33 years. Four of their children lived to establish families.

Madison's second wife was Melissa Ann Hupp whom he married September 1, 1867. She was only 18 when she came into this motherless home where the four children ranged in age from nearly two to nearly nine years. Then to this second union were born five children all of whom grew to manhood and womanhood. When Madison died December 3, 1879, these five children were all under 11 years of age, the youngest being 1 year 8 months old.

On September 7, 1881, Melissa Hupp Ullom was married to Christian Grim. They were the parents of four children. Melissa Ullom Grim was born January 1, 1849 and died July 13, 1920, at age 71. She is buried in the Windy Gap Cemetery. Christian Grim died in 1929.

Melissa Grim was the daughter of Isaac J. and Eliza Johns Hupp. Isaac Johnson Hupp was born October 3, 1819 and his wife was born January 21, 1825. In 1854 Mr. & Mrs. Hupp came to New Freeport and occupied one of the three houses there at that time and kept a tavern. They were the parents of eight children, Melissa being the third child. When Eliza Johns Hupp died January 16, 1897, only two of her children were living - Mrs. Melissa Grim, of Aleppo, Pa., with whom she spent the latter years of her life, and Dr. Lantz Hupp, a prominent physician of West Union, W. Va. Isaac J. Hupp had preceded his wife in death.

Melissa Grim was born January 1, 1849, so was five years old when she came to New Freeport with her parents. Her grandparents were Philip and Pheobe Johnson Hupp, who had six children. Philip Hupp was born October 4, 1781. Melissa's great-grandparents were Everhart and Margaret Thomas Hupp, who were the parents of eleven children. Everhart Hupp came from Culpepper County, Va., about 1766 to settle near the mouth of Ten Mile Creek, and with him came his four brothers, John, Phillip, Frank and George.

Everhart Hupp bought many acres of land north of Ten Mile Creek, and erected a cabin near the creek and about two miles from the place the creek empties into the Monongahela River. Mr. and Mrs. Everhart Hupp were always on good terms with the Indians, likely because Everhart paid them for the land. Mr. and Mrs. Hupp were known for their hospitality with the few settlers, all males. She was the only white woman west of the Monongahela, and often cooked and served, to the men on Sunday, the choice game and fish they brought. Everhart was active in the Revolutionary War, serving for a time as a lieutenant in Capt. Robert Sweeney's Company, Fifth Battalion, of Washington County Militia. On March 28, 1781 Washington County was formed and then Everhart and his family were residents of that county.

Everhart Hupp lived to be 109 years old and Margaret was 105 when she died. Melissa Grim died July 13, 1920, age 71.

Samuel B. Ullom was born in Greene County, Pa., but had resided for more than half a century in the Wheeling, W. Va., district. He married Matilda Eliza Dunlap and they lived for many years on the Island in Wheeling, but of later years they were residents of out-the-pike section at Pleasanton, W. Va. Samuel was an employee of the Aetna Standard Mill of Wheeling for over 35 years. He had been retired for several years when he died at his home, 309 Adams Ave., Pleasanton, W. Va., on April 22, 1932. Matilda preceded him in death on March 8, 1926.

Matilda Dunlap Ullom was born near West Alexander, Pa., a daughter of Samuel and Ruth Eliza Curtis Dunlap, who were prominent pioneer settlers of the West Alexander community and owners of the Pleasant Hill Nurseries. Mrs. S. B. Ullom was a staunch member of the Edgwood Park M. E. Church at Pleasanton and an active worker in the church. She was one of a small group who helped establish this church 25 years before her death on March 8, 1926. Both Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Ullom are buried in the family plot in the West Alexander Cemetery at West Alexander, Pa.

For an unexplained reason the Samuel B. Ullom family spell the last name Ullum.

Henry Ullom

Henry Ullom, son of Peter and Matilda Kinney Ullom, was born May 25, 1840. He was mustered into service in the Civil War, November 21, 1862. He was in Company A, 163rd Regiment, 18th Cavalry. He was captured by the southern soldiers and died in Andersonville Prison in Georgia. The date of his death is not known.

This prison was a stockade where 45,000 men were herded. More than 12,000 Union soldiers died at Andersonville. The director was Captain Henry Witz, a Swiss. He was hanged after the war.

Sanitation, disease, thirst, and the lack of doctors were the prison's great problems. It was August and the blistering South Georgia sun scorched the prisoners and their Confederate guards -- men too old to fight. All suffered. "Water" pleaded many and some prayed. A black cloud dropped low and a bolt of lightning crashed over the stockade and tore away the earth almost in the center of the prison.

And from the hole gushed water, a miracle spring, that brought water in time to save a multitude of Union soldiers held prisoners. Years later a monument was built around the spring, and it has continued to flow these many years since the Civil War, which was fought from April 12, 1861 to the surrender of Gen. Robert E. Lee to Gen. U. S. Grant April 9, 1865 at Appomattox, Virginia.

THE WOLLAMS

The President of the Wood County Historical Society, Lyle R. Fletcher, Bowling Green, Wood County, Ohio, stated in a letter to me, "This is an exact extract of pertinent material about the Wollams taken from pages 956-7-8 of the Historical Record of Wood County, Ohio, written by C. W. Evers and published by J. H. Beers & Co., Chicago in 1897."

The genealogy, or the subject of this sketch, was that of "William M. Wollam, a prominent citizen of Rising Sun, Wood County, Ohio, of French Huguenot descent."

"Founder of family, no given name listed, was born in Karlsruhe, Baden, Germany in 1684, came to Philadelphia in 1700, leased a tract of land in Berkeley County, Virginia. A son Jacob born there in 1715, had a son Baltzer born there in 1745, who had a son Henry born in 1777 on the same place on which the lease expired in 1802."

"Baltzer married Mary M. Weaver, had 11 children, and the whole family settled in Columbiana County, Ohio."

"Henry, a son of Baltzer, married Mary Bough of Frederick County, Va., on December 14, 1800, and had 7 sons and 6 daughters. Six of these children, 5 sons and 1 daughter, went from Columbiana County to Wood County. Henry was the grandfather of William M. Wollam."

Benjamin, son of Henry and father of William M. Wollam, was born in Columbiana Co., Ohio, March 11, 1807 and died in Wood County, April 6, 1887. He married Susanna Smith of Columbiana County on December 25, 1832. She was born August 1, 1811 and died May 14, 1883 in Wood County. They came to Wood County in 1834, purchased land, Section 25, near Rising Sun, built a pole shanty, then fled to Columbiana County, and returned to Wood County in 1838 to stay. Benjamin was the first settler near Rising Sun. They had four children.

1. Mary died at 8 years of age.
2. Leah born January 5, 1855, married Gustavus Crowel still living at Rising Sun in 1897.
3. William M. Wollam was born April 18, 1838 at Cannon's Mill, Madison Township, Columbiana County, Ohio, the same year his parents came to Wood Co. to settle permanently near Rising Sun. He married Julia A. Bierly, of Rising Sun on March 22, 1863, daughter of David Bierly. She was born January 28, 1845 in Sandusky County near Rising Sun. Her mother was Magdalene Schellenbarger, born in Switzerland. Two cousins of Mrs. Wollam, Robert and Alfred Bierly, were music publishers in Chicago and another cousin John Buchtel, endowed Buchtel College, now Akron University. The Wollams had 3 daughters.
  - A. Dora H. Wollam, born June 30, 1864, a teacher, (1897)
  - B. Lorain M. Wollam, born May 27, 1865, married Albert Yambert, lived near Sycamore, Ohio (1897). Two children, Dale and Fern.
  - C. Laurel S. Wollam, born July 22, 1867, married Frank Fry, one son Park Fry, living at Rising Sun in 1897.
4. Henry Smith Wollam, also son of Benjamin Wollam, was born November 14, 1844, and married Leah Stover. He died August 19, 1874.

BALSER and MARY M. WEAVER WOLLAM

Balser Wollam, oldest son of Jacob and Magdalene Woolam, was born in 1745 and died in 1823. He married Mary Magdalene Weaver, and they were the parents of eleven children. His father died in 1778 and his will was probated in Martinsburg, Berkeley County, Virginia (now West Virginia), November 17, 1778.

According to the early English laws, in force in Virginia at that time, the eldest son was known as the Heir-at-law and inherited all his father's estate. Balser began in May 1781 to buy property all on Sleepy Creek in Berkeley County, Va., two and one-half years after his father died, and he seemed to have plenty of money, for he bought land from time to time up to April 1794.

Then Balser sold these holdings in several deeds, the last one dated Sept. 20, 1806, and he, his wife, and their eleven children went to Columbiana County, Ohio. He was only 33 years old when his father died, and could hardly have made a great deal of money by that time on his own. It seems likely that Balser used his father's fortune to buy the land and that his brothers and sisters probably lived on the land with him.

Some of his brothers and sisters may have gone with him to Columbiana County, Ohio.

Balser's first <sup>1781</sup>purchase of land ~~was~~ from Thomas Lord Fairfax on May 3, 1781. The tract of land of 320 acres ~~is~~ <sup>about</sup> one mile and three-quarters from the Potomac River and he paid

Lord Fairfax for 21 years, 6 pounds yearly and every year on Michaelmas Day, which is Sept. 29th, the day of the feast of St. Michael. Recorded May 15, 1781.

On March 10, 1785, Mathias Swim conveyed by deed to Balser Woolam 296 acres of land on the Drains of Sleepy Creek on the western side.

On April 15, 1794 in consideration of 300 pounds, a tract of 184 acres of land on the Drains of Middle Fork of Sleepy Creek was conveyed to Balser Woolam by John Bailey, Jr., and his wife Ann.

On April 15, 1794 in consideration of 300 pounds, a tract of 103 acres of land on the Drains of Sleepy Creek was conveyed to Balser Woolam by John Bailey, Jr., and Ann, his wife.

On April 15, 1790 Balser Woolam and his wife Mary sold part of the tract of 296 acres on the Drains of Sleepy Creek on the western side to Zacharia Paktol, of Berkeley County, Va., in consideration of 50 pounds, a dividend on this land.

On February 21, 1801 Balser Woolam and his wife Mary conveyed a tract of 103 acres of land on the Drains of Sleepy Creek to James Catlett in consideration of 129 pounds.

On June 20, 1803 Balser Woolam and his wife Mary conveyed a tract of land of 200 acres on the South Fork of Sleepy Creek to Daniel Lynn of Winchester, Va., in consideration of 110 pounds.

On April 15, 1794 Balsar Owlam and his wife Mary conveyed 176 acres, which is part of the 296 acre tract on the Drains of Sleepy Creek on the western side, to John Ellenpurge; of Berkeley County, Va., in consideration of 50 pounds, a dividend on this land.

On September 20, 1806 Balser Woolam and his wife Mary sold a tract of land on the South Fork of Sleepy Creek to William Catlett for $ 450.00. (This was the last sale of land).

Miss Alice M. Woolam, of Rising Sun, R.D. 1, Ohio, sent me a copy of the lease made May 3, 1781 between Baltis Wollam and Thomas Lord Fairfax for 320 acres of land about one mile and three-quarters from the Potomac River and in Berkeley Co., Va. Baltis was to pay Lord Fairfax rent of 6 pounds every year and also pay the taxes and all assessments on the land to the government for 21 years, and at the end of that time peacefully and quietly deliver up possession of this land to Lord Fairfax or his heirs. Recorded May 15, 1781. (Mrs. Christine Bergen reported Baltzer Wollam had bought the 320 acres).
